Farm Bureau Sponsors Student Poster Contest

The opening of school signaled the beginning of the Better Breakfast Poster contest sponsored by Will County Farm Bureau in co-operation with Illinois Agricultural association.

The contest is open to all school children and prizes will be awarded for the best seven posters submitted by students in each of three classes: grades 1-4, 5-8 and 9-12. The top poster in the county will be entered in the State Poster contest, winner to be announced during IAA convention in November.

The contest was explained at teachers meetings Tuesday by Gene Malone, Secretary of Organization of Will County Farm Bureau. Speaking at a conference of teachers of rural and village schools, and at a meeting of teachers in Joliet elementary schools, Malone pointed out that over 13,000 posters were entered in last year's contest by youngsters from 76 Illinois counties.

He said, "We hope to have hundreds of entries in the contest from Will County schools this year." Schools not reached in meetings are being contacted by mail.

The contest closes October 18 when all posters must be turned in at the Farm Bureau office, 59 West Clinton Street, Joliet.

F. Hasenjaeger Killed by Auto On Home Lawn

The tragic death of Fred Hasenjaeger, 75, former resident of Green Garden township, occurred Tuesday, Sept. 9 about 5 p. m. Mr. Hasenjaeger had just come out of his home at 1416 Campbell st., Chicago Heights, when a car, driven by a 16 year old girl, went out of control, drove on the lawn, struck and pinned Mr. Hasenjaeger under the rear of the car. He was removed to St. James hospital where he was pronounced dead.

The Chicago Heights police stated the girl's father was in the car with her, teaching her to drive.

An inquest was held at the funeral chapel Tuesday afternoon with the verdict being, accidental death.

Born in Green Garden township, Feb. 9, 1883, Mr. Hasenjaeger lived and farmed there until his retirement a number of years ago. He and his wife, the former Minnie Ross, then moved to Chicago Heights. Next February they would have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They had no children.

Surviving beside his wife are three sisters, Linda Heigmann, Manhattan; Tillie Fuss, Lockport; and Laura Folkers, St. Petersburg, Fla. and a brother George, Frankfort.

Removal was made to the Spindler - Koelling funeral home, 1448 Otto Blvd., Chicago Heights, where services will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with the Rev. J. Hopkins Kleihues, pastor of the First Methodist church Chicago Heights, officiating. Burial will be in the Rose Hill cemetery, Green Garden.

Student Council Holds Birthday Calendar Sale

The student council members of Lincoln-Way high school will soon be at your door with a copy of the birthday calendar which has just been compiled for the current year. It will be a useful guide to the birthdays of the students and faculty members at Lincoln-Way.

The proceeds of this project are designed to pay the expenses necessary for the sponsoring of the new foreign exchange student, Ella Jensen of Denmark.

She will be making her home for the next 10 months with the Norvin Fosters at

Titus Moede Appears In Four New Pictures;

When Jerry Moede, a New Lenox youth, attended Lincoln Way high school, he was convinced there's no business like show business and now he is sure of it.

Jerry graduated from Lincoln-Way in June, 1956, but instead of college his thoughts were on the theatre and so he took himself to the capital of movies and television—Hollywood.

Passing tests to enter college can be tough but the theater is a tough school too and as thousands will attest it is harder to get in show business than most universities. Jerry has both feet in the door now and hopes that thru continued study and hard work he will win his way to the top.

He has appeared in 18 Little Theater productions in Hollywood, in television shows and now has had parts in four movies, two at Paramount, one on the Warner Brothers lot and his last one, "Pork Chop Hill," is an United Artists production.

His debut in the movies will be in "Too Young For Love", a Paramount film just due for release soon. The other pictures in which he has appeared also are due for release this fall— "Damn Yankees", by Warner Brothers which is to have its premier at the Roxy theater in New York in November; "Party Crashers", a Paramount film, and as mentioned "Pork Chop Hill."

Naturally Jerry's parts have been small but it is said that as a G. I. he has a nice role in "Pork Chop Hill."

Before breaking into the movies Jerry put in an apprenticeship in the Little Theater. He also made two appearances on Matinee Theater, and appeared twice on Walter Winchell's TV show, Secret File. He also worked in an U. S. Air force training film.

After this he joined the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists and the Screen Actors Guild. Since then opportunity opened for him in the four movies previously mentioned.

While a student at Lincoln-Way Jerry took part in many Footlighter Productions under the direction of the then head of the drama department, Richard Keeley. Encouragement from Mr. Keeley stiffened Jerry's resolve to go on in show business and he went to Hollywood.

While in school he was quite active in athletics as well as in theatrical productions and won letters in football, basketball, baseball and track.

Jerry is 20 years old and is the son of Mrs. George C. Hitz, of 158 Ogden, New Lenox, where his twin sister, Sharon, also resides. The name Moede is pronounced Moody, so naturally Jerry's friends dubbed him "Titus" after the radio and TV character, Titus Moody. So in his theatrical work he had adopted his nickname for his given name and appears as Titus Moede.

Friends in New Lenox and students at Lincoln-Way are naturally thrilled and excited at Jerry's progress, and the Lincoln-Way pupils are joining in the formation of a Titus Moede Fan club.

The club will be national in scope, its backers believe, and headquarters for the organization will be here, according to plans.

Parents Agree to Repair Mokena Home Wrecked by Youngsters

Parents of the nine boys involved in a case of trespass and vandalism in Mokena have agreed to make restitution for the damage.

An informal discussion of the case was held last Thursday night in the Mokena village hall. Although the property damaged—a quonset hut converted into a dwelling on S. Woodland circle—is outside the village, Mokena officials, with state police, investigated the complaint and rounded up the youngsters involved. The boys range in age from nine to 13.

Village Attorney Raymond Hooeham pointed out that the meeting Thursday had no official status, that if charges were placed against the boys they would have to be filed in the county or circuit court. Such a step, he added, could be a serious one for parents, as well as the youngsters.

Two of the parents hired Attorney William Penn and he was also at the meeting Thursday night, as were the parents and the boys involved, State Troopers William Hecht, of New Lenox, and Joseph Johnson, of Mokena; Mayor James Marti, Justice of the Peace August Werner and the other Mokena village officials.

The owner of the property, Dosu Doseff, of Chicago, said he was getting an estimate of how much it will cost to repair the damage to his place. "It was the understanding at the meeting that the parents of the nine youngsters said to be responsible for the damage would share equally in taking care of the repair bill."

The boys hacked "holes" in the roof and side of the building, chopped down the partitions and threw the pieces outside, wrecked doors and windows, a radio, a picnic table and four chairs and ripped sections of insulation. A kitchen table that had been in the house also disappeared.

One of the fathers endeavored to excuse the actions of the boys on the grounds that the door was unlocked. The owner said that he had locked the place when he left and that if it were unlocked then someone unlocked it. Investigators say that it would be difficult to ascertain whether the door had been locked or not because the trespassers had practically torn it down. They also pointed out to the parents that even if the door had been unlocked that would have been no excuse for the trespass and damage.

Mr. Doseff said that this was not the first time that his place has been damaged. He came down in July, he stated and found the glass broken out of all the windows and some of the frames damaged. He did not report the incident but repaired the damage, replaced the glass and then built shutters with which he covered the windows. These shutters were also wrecked in the damage preceding the Labor Day weekend.

State Trooper Hecht advised the parents to keep a closer watch on their offspring and make it their business to know when they go and where they go when they leave home, and how long they stay out. One of the boys involved has been in trouble before, investigators learned from Joliet police.

Coop's Coming To Tinley Park Church of Christ

Roy A. Coop will be coming to the Tinley Park Church of Christ next Tuesday, for a two week evangelistic meeting. He is coming from Crookston, Minn. where he is presently ministering. Beside his regular preaching duties, he has been in pioneer evangelism for a number of years. He assisted in the establishment of several new churches and served two years as field representative and evangelist for Minnesota Bible college. While preaching a few years ago in Nebraska, he served as part time instructor in the Platte Valley Bible college for three years. He is presently trustee for two Bible colleges.

Mr. Coop is well qualified from his record to bring to Tinley Park challenging Gospel messages each night. He wasn't always interested in church according to his friends. Because of unhappy religious experiences in boyhood, he became a skeptic, with a dislike for preachers and churches. In his twenties, though, he found his way out of confusion to accept Christ and become a preacher.

The Rev. Coop is married and has five children. The oldest son Timothy, will be a sophomore at Minnesota Bible college this fall.

Concerning his work, the minister states: "I try to retain the simplicity of the Scripture in all my preaching for I know how confusing theological terms and high-sounding phrases can be to the already confused religious mind. The Gospel is simple, and I love its simplicity. I am sure there are millions of others who would love it too, once they come to understand its simple but beautiful and powerful message."

Mr. Coop is a most challenging and dynamic speaker, and holds his congregations interest to the last word. He will conduct services in the Tinley church each night from Sept. 16 to 28 at 7:45. Everyone is invited to attend.

Nuclear Station

Press Tour Atomic Power Plant

Representatives of northern Illinois newspapers and radio stations, were privileged last Thursday, to tour the Dresden Nuclear power station being built by the General Electric company for the Commonwealth Edison company. The location of this stupendous project is located about 18 miles south of Joliet where the Kankakee and Des Plaines rivers meet to become the busy Illinois river in the Lakes-to-Gulf waterway system.

The cost of building this power station, the only one of its kind in the world, will be $45,000,000 and is being financed by private funds. There is no government subsidy according to speakers for the company. It is scheduled to be completed and in service by 1960.

The 90 people attending the tour were guests of the Joliet Public Service company at a dinner in the Joliet Country club preceding the tour. From there the trip of about 18 miles was made by individual cars.

On entering the grounds at Dresden, one is much impressed by the immensity of many buildings; the large water intake pipes and other equipment; but the most impressive is the large sphere housing the nuclear power reactor. The sphere is 20 stories high, weighs 3,500 tons and is made of steel 1.4 inches thick. Last

New Lenox Adopts Ordinance to Control Septic Systems, Pollution

An ordinance setting up control over septic systems now in use or to be built in the village of New Lenox was adopted by the village council at its regular meeting last week and will become effective in 10 days.

It is the first ordinance enacted in New Lenox covering disposal of sanitary waste, a subject that has produced numerous complaints by residents.

New Lenox officials have been working on plans for a sewer system but the costs were prohibitive. There is another plan now under consideration which would reduce the costs sufficiently to make a program feasible, it was said. This plan calls for use of an oxidation pond instead of a sewage treatment plant.

Approximately 25 acres would be needed for the purpose. Village officials have found a suitable site but even if this owner is willing to sell there is the question of obtaining an intervening strip so the pool site could be annexed to the village. The owner of the intervening land is said to have declined to sell.

In the meantime the village board has taken action to bridge the gap until a sewer system is installed. Village Attorney William Penn, who drafted the ordinance pointed out that it covers two phases—new construction or replacement of present septic systems and systems now in service "which cause or contribute to the pollution of any creek, stream or natural flow of surface water."

All septic systems constructed from now on, the ordinance provides, must conform to the minimum requirements prescribed from time to time by the department of health for Will county and the state of Illinois.

Applications for a building permit for a septic system must be accompanied by detailed plans and specifications.

The village health commissioner, Noel Elliott, is empowered to enforce the provisions of the ordinance and in this, it was stated, he will have the aid of the Will county health department and the backing of the entire village board.

Violators are subject to a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100 for each offense and each day such violation shall exist is deemed a separate offense.

A copy of the ordinance is carried in full in another portion of this paper.

Orland's Protest Bears Fruit

(CNS) The county board has deferred action on Anthony Consola's rezoning petition to allow the sale of liquor in his restaurant near Wolf road and 171st street, Orland township. This is near the intersection of Wolf road and U. S. 6 north of Mokena.

Consola is seeking reclassification of the restaurant property from B1 business to B2 business, tavern and amusement district. The site consists of one acre on the east side of Wolf road, 500 feet south of 171st street.

The restaurant is located on the first floor of a two story brick and frame structure. Consola and his family live upstairs.

He desires to sell liquor in the restaurant as a supplement to the serving of food.

County commissioners postponed action to look into a protest communication from the village of Orland Park. The communication, forwarded by Kenneth A. Halvorson, village clerk, states the board of trustees is opposed to the proposed zoning change.

Rezoning, however, has been recommended by the county zoning board. Its report stated: "The evidence and testimony presented at the public hearing is convincing of the public need and general desirability of reclassifying the property in question into the B2 district for the purposes described at the public hearing."

The zoning board said the proposed reclassification would be "in the public interest and in accord with the objectives of the zoning ordinance."

Parade at Tinley To Honor Retirement of Capt. Hodge

A retirement parade in honor of Captain Dale F. Hodges, adjutant of the 22d artillery group (Air defense), Orland Park, will be held at Memorial park, Tinley Park, Friday, Sept. 19 at 2:30 p.m. Invitations are extended to all residents in and around the Orland Park and Tinley Park area to attend the ceremony. A pass in review by units of the 22d Artillery group will be the highlight of the parade. There will also be a Color guard and Drum & Bugle corps from 45th Artillery brigade of the air defense.

The retirement parade will climax a career of 20 years active service for Captain Hodges. He first entered the Army in June of 1938. In the course of his Army career, he served as an enlisted man until Feb. 24, 1943 when he graduated from the Antiaircraft Artillery Officers candidate school as a second lieutenant

Feb. 25, 1943. His first assignment was as a commissioned officer as a battery officer with the 203rd AAA AW Bn. at Fort Bliss, Texas, where he served until December, 1943 at which time he was ordered to the China-Burma-India theater of operations. His assignments in the CBI were as assistant engineer supply, advance section 2, United States Forces CBI and Commanding officer and Engineer Supply officer of the 1790th Engineer Service unit in the China theater. During this time he participated in four major battles. At the end of the war in August, 1945, he returned to the United States. His assignments in the United States were as Shop officer, Asst. Adjutant, and Headquarters Battery commander with the 1st Guided Missile battalion WSPG, New Mexico.

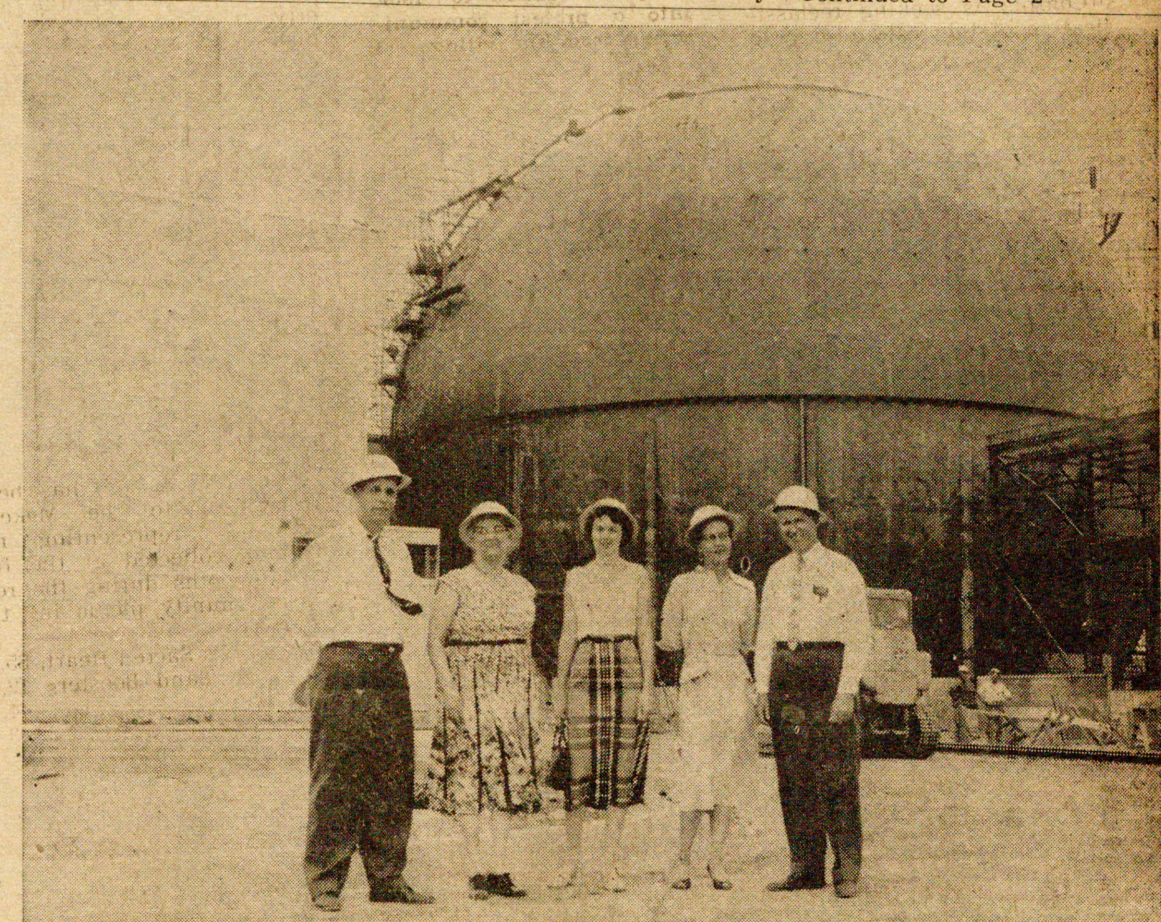

In July 1948 he attended the

Modify Master Plan For Mokena Frankfort Area

A master plan for the Mokena-Frankfort area is presently being studied by officials of both villages.

An engineer from Educational and Technical Consultants, Inc., of Evanston, will present such a plan at the meeting of the Frankfort board of trustees on Monday.

The plan to be presented by the planning engineering firm has been modified from an original plan submitted and will cost only about half as much.

This plan was viewed by Burton Breidert, chairman of the Frankfort Plan Commission, Maurice Angland, chairman of the Mokena Plan Commission, Charles P. Rose, a member and George Sangmeister, mayor of Frankfort, at a meeting held last Tuesday in the office of the B. and M. Lumber Company.

Officials have been informed that the combined plan proposed for the two villages, is the first of its kind in Illinois.

Mayor James Marti of Mokena has expressed pleasure at the cooperation exhibited between the villages.

Elizabeth Scarth Succumbs After Prolonged Illness

Mrs. Elizabeth Scarth, 78, of Joliet, mother of Mokena's former mayor, John Scarth, died last week at the Smith Nursing Home after a prolonged illness. Born in Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 7, 1880, she came to Joliet at the age of 15.

Besides her son John, she is survived by another son, George of New Lenox; three daughters, Margaret (Mrs. Milton Button), Anne Mae (Mrs. Harold Gruener), and Emily (Mrs. Bud Swanson) all of Joliet; eight grand children and one great grandchild. Her husband, George, died in 1953. Burial was in Woodland cemetery.

Frankfort Herd Owners Win in DHIA Contest

The Vally-Homerding Holstein herd in Frankfort township was reported as the top producer in July by the Dairy Herd Improvement Association for the first district. The announcement was made by Alden Hickman, assistant farm adviser.

According to the report the mark was 1.40 fat and 38.8 pounds of milk. Next was the herd of J. H. Heisner, Peotone, with 1.33 fat and 41.3 pounds of milk and third was Irvin Holm, Mokena, with 1.25 fat and 31.6 milk.

In the contest for individual cows a Holstein owned by Walter Laufer, Tinley Park, was tops with 84 pounds of fat and 2,275 pounds of milk. Laufer also owned the cow that finished second with 84 pounds of fat and 2,093 pounds of milk. Third place went to a cow owned by Irvin Holm.

Seek Catholic Foster Homes for Older Children

A widespread search for Catholic foster homes for older children will be launched this weekend (Sept. 14) by the Catholic Home Bureau, Catholic Charities child placement agency at 645 W. Randolph st.

According to the Very Rev. Msgr. Bernard M. Brogan, Catholic Home Bureau supervisor, the agency is faced with an unprecedented scarcity of available foster homes for children aged 10 to 16. Children in this age group are more than 200 dependent referred to the agency each year by courts, clergy, the children's natural parents, and other sources.

The boys and girls involved are classified as "dependent" because of the sickness or death of one or both parents or because of divorce, separation or similar family disaster. Legal factors bar the way to adoption of these youngsters.

The effort to recruit foster homes for older children will be carried on thruout the Archdiocese of Chicago (Cook and Lake counties). Plans call for special efforts to be made in parishes in four selected "test" areas during the coming week.

Besides placing children in foster homes, the Catholic Home Bureau places and supervises adopted children. The agency places in adoption more than 500 infants each year. Msgr. Brogan stressed the fact that there is no shortage of homes for adoptable children.

"But," he said, "few families seem willing to accept foster children in the 10-16 age group. We have placed as many of these children as we can in our three major institutions for dependent children, even though foster care is, for most dependent children, the best way of assuring their proper growth."

"Now we are exhausting available facilities in institutions, and are desperately in need of good foster homes. I think many people would gladly accept these children if they only gave a little thought to it."

Msgr. Brogan commented that most of the children for whom foster homes are sought are not "problem" children, but normal children who need a home. He added that they are of every race and nationality.

80 pounds of fat and 1,857 pounds of milk.

March it was successfully tested when it was filled with compressed air to a pressure of 37 pounds per square inch.

After the test, two large temporary openings were cut to permit moving in material and equipment for installation inside the sphere. The largest piece of equipment to be moved in will be the 300-ton reactor pressure vessel. The latter is being constructed by New York Shipbuilding Corporation at Camden, New Jersey. It is so massive that it must be shipped by water, coming over the Atlantic and Gulf Intercoastal waterways to New Orleans and then up the Mississippi and Illinois waterways to the site. Delivery is expected late this year.

When viewing this massive piece of work, which took 800 men alone to work out the invention, over a period of many years, I could not but help thinking of the pyramids and seemed to me that the pyramids cannot stand among the first wonders of the world in comparison to the reactor and the sphere and equipment housing it and the many plans, of numerous scientists to bring it into realization, it is beyond human comprehension.

What the cost of building the pyramids was, no one knows, and of the $45,000,000 contract price to build the Nuclear power station, Commonwealth Edison will pay and capitalize as a regular part of its plant account, $30,000,000, plus something over $6,000,000 of overhead and site costs. The remaining $15,000,000 is being paid as a research and development expense over a period of five years by the companies associated in Nuclear Power group.

This group in addition to Commonwealth Edison, consists of American Electric Power company, Bechtel corporation, Central Illinois Light company, Illinois Power company, Kansas City Power & Light company, Pacific Gas and Electric company, and Union Electric company.

Announcement was made at the dinner program that Orland Park, 90 miles from Dresden, will be the first to receive this new power, coming from the substation located at Goodings Grove.

University of Illinois corn breeders have stepped up seed production in four of the most promising dwarf hybrids they have developed. If this program is successful, there should be enough seed to plant 10,000 to 15,000 acres in 1959.

District 19 High School Council Holds First Meeting Sept. 15

High School Council, Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, District 19 open their busy year with a meeting on legislation on Sept. 15 at 8 p.m. in Evergreen Park High school, 99th and Kedzie. According to Council president, Mrs. Russell Foss of Carl Sandburg High school, Dr. Marshall Batho, speaker for the meeting plans an informal question and answer period. Dr. Batho has begun his 6th year as superintendent of Evergreen Park High. Prior to this assignment he came from LaCrosse, Wis., where he also was a school superintendent. He received his Master's degree and Ph. D. in education administration from the Univ. of Wisconsin.

The following High schools are members of the Council: Bremen Community High, Bloom Township High, Evergreen Community High, Oaklawn Community High, Carl Sandburg High and Thornton Township High.

The purpose of the Council is to channel information from the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers to the local units in each of the member schools, and exchange ideas and plans.

Model Latest Styles At Fashion Show

Appointed as chairman for the coming fashion show on Sept. 17, titled "The Jet Age of Fashion", are Mrs. Frank Bischoff, tickets; Mrs. Clarence Creer, decorations; Mrs. Joseph Tinaglia, refreshments and Mrs. Kenneth Bressler, clean up. These appointments were made at an informal meeting held Sept. 3 at the home of Mrs. Oscar Enk, President of the Orland Park Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. William Grosskopf announced that the models would show the latest fashions to the accompaniment of organ music, supplied through the courtesy of a nearby store.

Modeling the latest creations will be Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Harry Burson, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Victor Ebeling, Mrs. James Whitford, Mrs. Henry Rafacz, Mrs. Ivo Mersmann, Mrs. James Plakovic, and Mrs. William Fisher, all members of the club. Other models from Orland will be Mrs. Robert Peterman, Miss Mary Kay Ebeling and Miss Marilyn Fisher.

Occupational therapy articles from Oak Forest will be on display, and may be purchased from Mrs. Donald Craemer or Mrs. Elmer Libner, to benefit the Oak Forest hospital. Especially interesting to those who are too busy to bake, will be a bake sale under the capable direction of Mrs. Franklin Loebe.

As this is the big project for the year for the Junior Women of Orland, it is hoped that it will be most successful. Every member is contributing her talents by serving on committees, or modeling; contributing baked goods, and selling tickets. Tickets are obtainable from any member, and will also be available at the auditorium of the Orland Park

Don Kolloway Appears on "Sports Night"

Hold Church League Program In St. George Hall Sept. 20

Don Kolloway, former White Sox infielder, will be guest speaker at the semi-annual "Sports Night" program being sponsored by the Tinley Park church league. The program starts at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 20, and will be held in St. George school hall, 176th and Garden st., Tinley Park.

First and second place league softball trophies will be presented. A film, in color, of the 1957 World Series between the Milwaukee Braves and New York Yankees, will be shown. Refreshments will be served.

The event promises to be one of the best sports programs presented in the area this year. Tickets may be purchased from any player, at Rudy's Fountain, 17269 Oak Park ave. or at the door.

The Zion Lutheran team took first place in the church league with a 10-2 record. Second place winners is the Methodists.

5th Annual Event by Saddle Club

The Homer Saddle club will present its fifth annual Horse Show, Sunday, Sept. 14, featuring WLS radio star Woody Mercer as announcer at beautiful Donahue Woods, 143rd and State road Lockport, for the benefit of the North West Homer Volunteer fire department.

This year's show promises to be bigger and better than last year's event with a new class added, called a Yearling Class for all colts born in the year 1957.

Scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. with four classes being shown, there will be a noon intermission at which time lunch will be served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the fire department.

The show will resume at 1 p.m. with presentation of the colors.

Master of Ceremonies will be WLS star Woody Mercer assisted by Louis 'Bud' Henson as ringmaster.

Trophies, cash, and five ribbons will be awarded in each class.

Fred R. Flossig, show chairman, is being assisted by Clem Watts, president of the club and all other club members who are working to make the event a success.

Tickets will be sold at the gate.

Don't miss it — it comes only once a year and its for the family.

In the event of rain the following "Sunday" has been set for the presentation.

Remember Sunday, Sept. 14 is also "I am an American Day".

All-Star Team, Lutherans Play Softball Game in Tinley Sunday

The Tinley Park Church league all-star team of 1958 will display their talents this Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. on the Little League ball diamond in Memorial park.

Their opponent will be the league champion, Zion Lutheran team, who won the championship last week by dumping the Methodists into second place.

The Lutheran squad will bring a 10-2 record into the game and will be paced by their slugging all-star shortstop, Logan Rick, and the fine pitching of Wally Goebel, plus an outstanding defensive team. Coach Eric Nasebandt is confident his team can beat the all-star team to top off a fine season.

The star-studded all-star team is loaded with talent and should present an outstanding battle. The starting lineup will probably be as follows: Harold Teehan (M) 3rd base; Ron Gallina (C) shortstop; John Bock (M), 2nd base; Russ Andres, selected at 1st base will play if his injured hand has healed.

The outfield will consist of Harry Ver Way (M), Art DeGraff (R), John Fickett (C), with Joe Bartalotta (C) at short center; Al Winans (C) will handle the catching and Ken Webster (M) will be the starting pitcher.

Fans are urged to attend this game and see top Tinley players in action. All indications point toward an outstanding game.

Register Now For Tiny Tot Swim Classes at Y

The Tiny Tot swim instruction classes for children three to seven years of age held at the Harvey Y.M.C.A. are filling up awfully fast. Registrations are now being taken in the physical section and can be made by phone. The classes are to begin on Sept. 15, one day per week, and are scheduled as follows: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Friday at 3:15 p.m.; or Wednesday or Friday at 10 a.m.

The classes are 45 minutes long. Children must be 42" tall or over; girls must have suit, cap, and towel; and boys must have a suit and towel.

A class for handicapped children will begin Sept. 18, and will be held every Thursday at 3:15 p.m. This is a special class which offers a period of relaxation to those who participate. There is no charge, but we are requesting every participant to register at the physical section.

Parents of children enrolled in the Tiny Tot classes, who do not have a family membership, may secure two free guest passes in the physical section to try out the "Family Swims" at the "Y" which are of great help to children taking lessons and a lot of fun for the whole family. At least one parent must accompany the child to family swims.

There is only a short time left to register so call now; make sure your child has the fun and safety of knowing how to swim while they are still young enough to overcome any fears. For further information and to register, call Mrs. Peterson at EDison 1-6500.

Lutherans Win Church League Championship

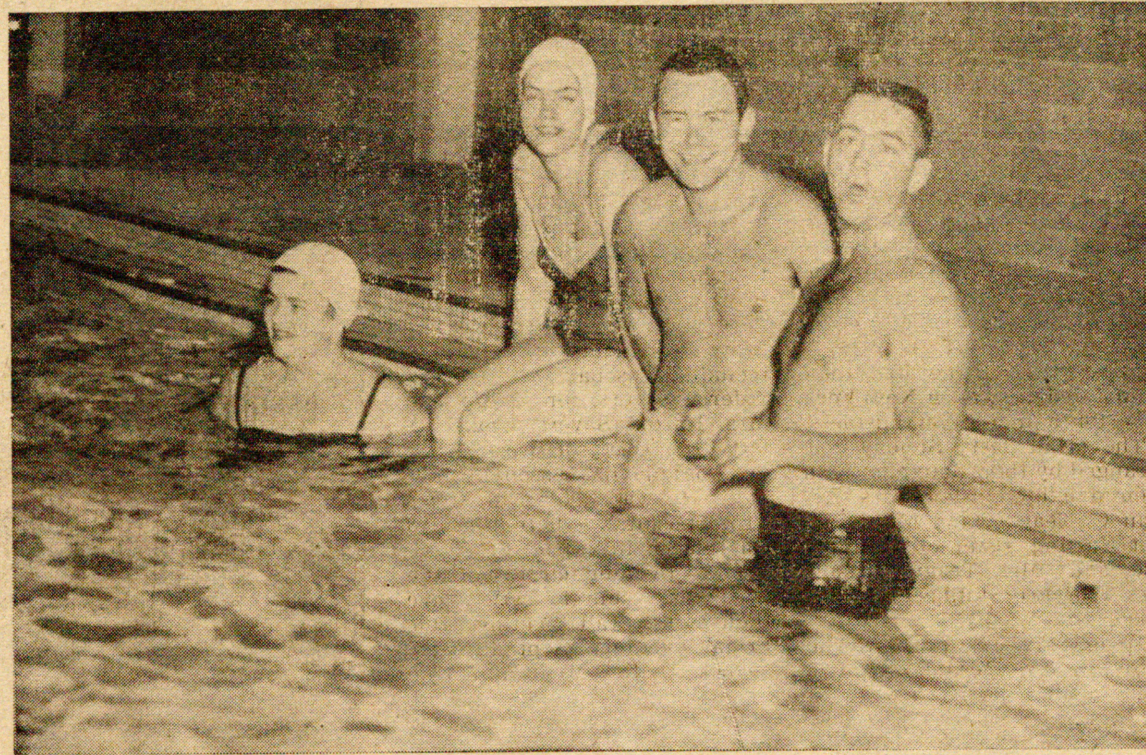

Last Saturday afternoon Zion Lutheran rolled over the Methodists in a lopsided 10-0 decision, to become the first Tinley Park Church League Champions. Wally Goebel once again was a major asset to his teammates, as he shut out the Methodists on only four hits.

The Lutheran defense was superb and hitting strong. Dean Propp and Bert Jevett each collected two of the eleven Lutheran hits. Jevett and Logan Rick smashed home runs that seemed to break the Methodists' backs. "Lefty" Jensen was a wizard in short center field.

After a seven run first inning Zion Lutheran had smooth sailing the rest of the way. They added two more in the second and one in the fourth to account for all scoring.

The league board would like to thank Ken Webster, league director, and all those who participated in making this a successful and exciting season. The Church league is now making plans for its second annual basketball campaign.

Veteran Trio Aims for Track Championship

Bob Tattersall, Bernie Wilhelm and Willie Wildhaber will be aiming for the track championship when they line up for the final midget auto race Saturday night at Joliet Memorial Stadium. A 50 lap season championship race will be featured, before an estimated crowd of 7,000.

The veteran trio is locked in a virtual tie for the lead in the track point standings. A victory in Saturday's 50 lap feature would mean the track title for any of the three.

Tattersall, of Streator, has won four feature races this season, including two at 50 laps. Wilhelm, of Joliet, has captured two main events, one of them at 50 laps, and Wildhaber, Lexington, Ill., speedster, has won four.

Trophies will be awarded to the car owners and drivers for (first place in both the 50 lap feature and 15 lap semifeature. Among the other drivers in Saturday's season windup will be: Danny Kladis of Chicago, George Sillery of Chicago, Paul Kerber of Elgin, Dick Wescott of Lockport, and Jolietans Russ Sweedler, Bob Hauck, Sam Robinson, Bob McGee and Frank Dukes.

Time trials will start at 7:30 p.m. and the first race at 8:30 p.m. Besides the feature and semifeature, there will be four heat races and a handicap event.

80 Persons Honor Couple at 25th Wedding Anniversary Party

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman F. Teague, 128 Mokena st., were surprised last Sunday when 80 relatives and close friends gathered at their home to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. While the wedding day was July 15, it could not be celebrated then as Mr. Teague was in New York City for a month on business.

The affair last Sunday was arranged by their daughter Joan, their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lyman C. Teague, and Mrs. Harriet Harling, sister of Mr. Teague, and Mrs. Teague's sister Mrs. Florence Stollberg of Bellwood.

Members were present who were in the bridal party 25 years ago. Guests came from Chicago, Bellwood, Westchester, Markham, Evergreen Park, Cicero and Mokena. Mr. Teague's twin brother, the Rev. Louis Teague of Lancaster, New York, was here a month ago and could not return. Mrs. Teague was given a white carnation corsage and Mr. Teague, a white carnation boutonniere from their granddaughters, Karen and Sharon Teague.

A buffet dinner was served, the table being centered with a three tiered wedding cake. The honored couple received many lovely gifts.

Robert Geuther, Harry Yunker and William Ihde of the Immanuel Lutheran church will attend the annual Lutheran Child Welfare festival and picnic at Addison this Sunday. It will be an all day affair when 10,000 persons are expected to attend. This will be the 85th anniversary of the orphanage.

It will also be the laying of the corner stone to the large new addition to the orphanage, at 1:15. Also the corner stone late in 1874 will be opened. The men from Mokena will assist at the festival.

The Wayfarers will hold their regular meeting in the Fellowship hall of the Methodist church Saturday Sept. 13 starting at 8 p. m. As important business will be discussed, and an interesting program presented, all members are urged to attend.

A picnic was held in the Community park last Sunday sponsored by Jim Surovich's tavern. A good attendance was present. Games were played including baseball.

Jerry Savers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Savers, broke his left arm near the wrist when he was playing baseball Sunday. He was taken to Silver Cross hospital where the arm was placed in a cast.

The Evening circle of the Methodist church will have their first fall meeting this Friday evening, Sept. 19 at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Katherine Lotz at Arby Hills.

The WSCS of the Methodist church will meet today with Mrs. Pitman at 2 p. m.

Three families in Kohlwood enjoyed a neighborhood picnic Labor day. They were the Vernon Lankaus family, Richard Sippel family and the Willis Guths. The picnic was held in the Guths' back yard. All had a fine time.

Keith Liston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Liston, left Monday for Great Lakes, where he will specialize in electronics. A fare well party was given for him Friday evening by the Mokena Teen club.

Word has been received that Terry Marshall, Leonard Hemmick and Dean Liston who are stationed at the Naval Base at San Diego are doing fine.

Mrs. Alice Roberts of Chicago, mother of Mrs. Arthur Marshall, is in the Englewood hospital. She broke her shoulder and elbow Saturday when she fell down a flight of stairs.

The Ladies Auxiliary, VFW will hold a card party Saturday, Sept. 13, at 8 p. m. in the VFW Hall, Mrs. Maude Larson is the chairman, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Seal and Elsie Shaubel.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Guth son David and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Douglas of Tinley Park will leave this week end for Murray, Ky., where the latter will spend a month at Kentucky lake. The elder Douglas' are staying in the Douglas home during their absence. The Guths will return Sunday.

MRS. MARGARET KOERNER who has been employed at the Frankfort postoffice for 21 years, retired Aug. 30. She served under two postmasters, her sister, Mrs. Amelia K. Fink, and the present postmaster, Leroy J. Mager.

Mrs. Koerner is a native of the area and has lived there most of her life. She plans to do some traveling; one trip will be to Florida, which state she has not visited. Her hobbies include raising flowers.

Several parties have been given in her honor, one of which her fellow workers at the Frankfort postoffice gave for her at Dunlap's restaurant in Worth Saturday evening. It was a dinner party and attended by Postmaster and Mrs. Leroy Mager, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Schram, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Warming, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne De Porto. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Christ Sipple, Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Christie Sipple, Mokena, Chester Myers, Joliet and Wilber Myers, Los Angeles.

The Ladies Aid society of the Immanuel Lutheran church will meet Friday at 1:30 with Mrs. Ardelle Spiess and Mrs. Anna Werner hostesses.

Mokena Methodist church picnic will be held Sunday, Sept. 14, at 2:30 p. m. in the Community park. There will be games for the children, and pot luck supper will be served at 6 o'clock followed by a camp fire service in charge of the Rev. Gerald Jackson.

Anne Feldner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Feldner, 191 Harlem ave., is among the 62 new students entering St. Francis hospital school of nursing at Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smiel, son Joe and granddaughter Georgine have returned from a two weeks motor trip to New Mexico and other western states.

Women's Guild The Rev. William J. Riemann will address the Women's Guild of St. John's church when they meet Sept. 18 in the church parlors. His topic will be "We Believe in the Sacraments". Election of officers will be held and plans made for the annual turkey supper to be held Oct. 8.

At the last meeting it was voted to continue the 1:30 p. m. dessert-coffee, preceding each meeting, for another six months. Mrs. Harry Mall will serve

WHO WROTE THE BIBLE ANYWAY?

For 1800 years the Bible has been the subject of much controversy. Is it an authentic book? Is it to be trusted? Where did the Bible come from?

Many people are under the false impression that the Bible was given to the world in the third century A. D.—this is not true. All the authors of the New Testament were firsthand witnesses of the establishment of the Christian Church. The Bible itself tells us that these "holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." (II Peter 1: 21)

These men made it their business to set down an accurate and reliable account of the events which figured in the founding of the Christian Church. Bible-believing Protestants have found that God so directed in the writing of the Scriptures that the result is an accurate record of God's message to mankind.

The Bible itself claims to be from God. In Paul's second letter to Timothy we read that "All scripture is given by inspiration of God." Either we must believe such a claim, or we must take the Bible to be a completely false record.

Bible-believing Protestants, down through the ages, have put their complete trust in the Scriptures as God's message.

The entire Bible message is centered in Jesus Christ as the Son of God, and in the salvation which God has made possible through the death and resurrection of Christ. The Bible says: "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." (Acts 4: 12)

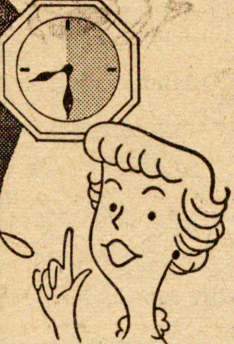

A true understanding of the Bible message is the doorway to salvation. You may be interested in knowing more about the Bible and what it can mean to you. Many of your questions will be answered in a pamphlet which you may have FREE of charge by simply filling in and mailing the following:

Couple Wed in Double Ring Ceremony at Orland Methodist

The Orland Park Methodist church was the scene of a pretty wedding, Sat. Sept. 6, when Doris Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cooper, and Jack Ludes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ludes, were united in marriage. Rev. Robert L. Plastow officiated at the candle light double ring ceremony.

The church altar was decorated with white mums and gladioli and palms. Music for the wedding ceremony was played by the church organist, Mrs. Alma Rauch. Ted Paarlberg, of South Holland, brother of Mrs. Cooper, sang "God Gave Me You," "With This Ring," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white satin gown, bodice of chantilly lace with seed pearls and sequins, full skirt enhanced by a chapel length train. Her only jewelry were pearl earrings. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a tiara of sequins and pearls. She carried a white Bible and a bouquet of white orchid and stephanotis.

Linda Cooper as flower girl, carried a white basket with pink rose petals which she dropped while she preceded the bride. She wore a white embroidered organza dress with green satin sash and willow green head piece.

George Cooper served as ring bearer, dressed in a tuxedo and carried a white satin pillow. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cooper are the parents of both children.

Mrs. Carol Vanek was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Theresa Buck, Doris Innokus of Beecher and Teddi Ann Ludes, sister of the groom. All wore sheath dresses of willow green satin and net over skirts. Their head pieces of velvet and veil and shoes were matching. They carried bouquets of yellow Fuji mums surrounded by bronze cushion mums.

Gene Adams served the room as best man. Dudley Luck, Paul Cooper and Keith Blackstone served as ushers. All wore tuxedos and a white armband boutonniere.

The bride's mother wore a sage green crepe dress, matching feather hat and black pumps. The groom's mother wore a printed blue nylon jersey dress, black velvet hat and pumps. Their corsages were Cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Lara Vondersmith, maternal grandmother of the groom, wore a printed blue silk dress and black hat. Her corsage was an orchid.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors, where 132 guests enjoyed the dinner.

The bridal table was centered with a large wedding cake topped with bride and groom. White candles were at both ends of the table. At each place setting there was a nut cup fastened on a green scalloped base with two rings tied with white ribbon and a sprig of lily of the valley and a program also tied with two rings. These were created by Mrs. George Flondor. The tables were centered with bouquets of yellow button mums.

Following the dinner, Everett Cooper of Mokena, as master of ceremonies, greeted the guests followed by the opening song "Welcome" to the one of "In the Gloaming." A gift with pictures covered with colored papers, hung on the wall. The bride and groom selected a color and Everett could tell about the picture. His was entitled "Boy Meets Girl" and covered their romantic highlights.

The newly weds left for a honeymoon trip to Colorado, the Bad Lands in South Dakota and Yellowstone park. On their return they will reside in an apartment on 94th ave., Orland Park.

The bride is employed by the Cooper Electric Company in Orland. The groom at Standard Oil Co., LaGrange.

Many pre-nuptial showers were given in honor of the bride by Mrs. Fred Blackstone, Mrs. Thomas Cooper and daughters, the bridal attendants at the home of Mrs. Dudley Luck, and Mrs. Merrill Cooper had a party of employees of Cooper Electric, who presented her with a gift. Also the Bible study group of the Methodist church when they met at the home of Mrs. Melvin Doogan.

Republicans Hold Committeewomen Luncheon Friday

Polynesian and South Rooms of the Edgewater Beach hotel will be the gala site of the 12th annual luncheon sponsored by the Republican Country Town Committeewomen at 12:15 sharp on Friday, Sept. 12. Many prizes will be given.

The Hon. Marguerite Stitt, Congresswoman of the 13th District, will be the guest speaker, and the five incumbent Congresswomen in Cook County will also be introduced.

Mrs. Church has selected for the pertinent title of her speech, "Republican Challenge." She is a continual source of inspiration to all who hear her and it is expected the rooms will again be filled to overflowing.

Grace will be given by the Rev. Paul T. Sanders, Methodist Minister, formerly pastor of the Methodist church in Orland Park. Rev. Sanders is founder and now director of the well known Community Center Foundation in Palos Park. The delightful Orland Park Methodist Church, a Capella octette will entertain during the luncheon hour.

Tickets may be obtained from your own Republican Township Committeewoman or from the ticket chairman, Mrs. Florence Luckner, 203 S. Elmhurst avenue, Mt. Prospect, Telephone CLearbrook 3-7689.

Smorgasbord Is Planned For VFW Auxiliary

The annual smorgasbord sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary to Bremen Post 2791 will be held Sept. 20 from 6 till 9 pm. Tickets can be obtained by calling the chairman, Mrs. John Johnson, KE 2-4633.

The monthly business meeting of the auxiliary was held Sept. 1 with Mrs. M. S. Morrison presiding. The auxiliary was honored to have as their guests the 16th District President Mrs. Elsie Sawinski of Calumet City, and Mrs. Ellen Sampson, Sr. vice president, of Erlanger VFW Post, Calumet City.

The annual pledge to Hines Veterans Hospital was made. Also a donation to the South Suburban Handicapped Children's ball.

Mrs. Floyd Klepper was elected to the office of Guard, position left vacant by Mrs. John Johnson who now holds the office of Jr. vice president. Mrs. Klepper also received the attendance prize for the evening.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Mike Haber and Mrs. Frank Mott.

VFW game night is every Wednesday evening beginning at 8 pm. in the Post club rooms 172nd and Oak Park ave., Tinley Park. The public is invited.

Church Group Hears Plans For Next Year

The women's group of Tinley Park Reformed church will meet Sept. 22 with their president, Mrs. Ringer Boersma to hear plans for the coming year's work.

A skit entitled "Dishpan Missionary" will high light the study work of this Woman's Service League who assist six missionaries in foreign fields. Other officers of this group are Mrs. James Triezenberg, vice president; Mrs. Peter Bolhuis, secretary and Mrs. John Folkrod, treas.

The meetings are regularly scheduled for the fourth Monday of each month at the church building. The organization is a member of the missionary union, mother association for all Women's Service Leagues.

Mrs. Rod Jackson, wife of the pastor, attended a planning session on Thursday for Minister's wives and officers at Camp Manatoga, Frankfort, for the purpose of arrangements in connection with a general conference to be held in the near future.

Frankfort WSCS Hold Fall Hat Sale Sept. 17-18

The president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Frankfort Methodist church, Mrs. Wendell Morrison, announces that all arrangements are set for the Fall hat sale to be held in the Fellowship hall of the Church on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 17 and 18.

On Wednesday the sale will begin at 4 pm, and continue until 8 pm. A buffet supper will be available to patrons during the sale hours. Thursday's sale will be held from 2 to 5 pm. A snack bar will be open.

Mrs. Charles Lewin and her assistants have selected hats in abundance from the latest and most fabulous creations for Fall. Styles will include cloches, bonnets, fedoras and turbans fashioned of felt, satin, velvet and feathers. Every color of the rainbow will be represented, some beyond imagination. Glamorous, though it may sound, those ladies with more moderate tastes and means will be pleased.

Mrs. Herschel Patterson, chairman of the sales, invites all to come and enjoy choosing a topper for that fall ensemble.

Couple Exchange Wedding Vows In New Lenox

Wedding vows were exchanged Sept. 6 in the New Lenox Methodist church by Miss Shirley Peterson and Theodore Fairbairn. The Rev. A. Hunter officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson of South Woodland Circle, Mokena. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fairbairn of Prairie road, New Lenox.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon lace. The fitted bodice had a scalloped scoop neckline sprinkled with pearls, long tapered sleeves closed at the wrist with tiny buttons. The cotillion length skirt was flared by gads of nylon tulle ruffles. Her head piece was a thrice petal cloche of Alemon lace sprinkled with pearls, and her jewelry was small pearl earrings. She carried a nosegay with deep pink carnations and white streamers.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Robert Peterson residence in Mokena.

The young couple are living in Mokena.

Official Status Given to Tinley Woman Voters

The Tinley Park League of Women Voters now has official status and no longer is a Provisional league.

A general meeting of the league will be held Monday, Sept. 29, at 8 pm. in the Municipal building.

Now that the provisional status is over the League may actively work and participate in many projects which they could not do until officially recognized.

One of the requirements of a new league is to gather information on their locality and to correlate it. The Tinley league has completed this project and their "Know Your Town" survey will be published soon in the Semmler News-papers.

Business and Finance

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND

Ins. Business finance stand 49 Labor Day, in the business world, is a sort of "Business New Year's Day." The summer season is usually expected to be slack with normal business acceleration coming as September progresses.

The cloud on the horizon is the possibility of a strike in the automobile industry. It is expected that the union and manufacturers will come to terms, but that both sides will do a considerable amount of shadow boxing and name calling. A good portion of this will be by union leaders to impress their members with their efforts to protect and improve the worker's position. The manufacturers must fight back for its effect on the buying public against wage increases which must bring price increases with any but nominal wage or benefit increases.

Steel production is in its eighth week of successive increases. September orders are expected to be more than 15 per cent ahead of August.

Consumer products as foods, tobaccos, etc. have fared very well. Cigarette sales increase with population increases. They have regained much of their investment standing since the scare as to "lung cancer."

It is rumored that Fortune Magazine is shortly to publish a research study of the relation ship of cigarettes to heart disorders. Such an article by this magazine will no doubt receive wide publicity. The market prices for cigarette stocks may reflect this by temporarily lower prices, but past health scares have not had too much effect on earnings or market prices over an extended period.

Sales of better grade pipe tobaccos have shown considerable increases each month for most of the year.

Automobile tire sales are expected to show considerably improved sales as well as earnings. Lower auto sales reduced new equipment sales and replacement sales also were lower than expected. Both new equipment sales and replacement sales are now increasing. A price increase averaging about 3 per cent more than offsets a wage increase in July.

Federal spending on roads, defense etc. is going ahead at an accelerated pace.

American Express Co., an old firm whose traveller's checks are known and used all over the world, is also active in some banking fields. Its traveller's checks are sometimes carried for months prior to cashing. This gives the company use of a substantial amount of funds on which no interest is paid. There are other sources of deposits thru foreign branches. The company has been pushing a travel plan which can be paid for in from 12 to 24 months. This is really a small loan venture in addition to normal travel commissions earned. It has a number of credit facilities.

American Express Co. was for many years a part of the Chase National Bank of New York organization. It was divorced from the Chase organization due to banking laws of the early 1930's.

As of Oct. 1, 1958 American Express Co. is starting in the profitable Credit Card field which has given Diner's Club, Inc. a rather sensational profit history the last couple of years.

These credit cards permit the holder to buy food, lodging night club entertainment etc. on credit with monthly billing from the issuing company each month. With the cards and monthly billing, business men have many advantages including records for income tax. The sellers of food, lodging etc. listed by the issuer as accepting these cards, pays around 7 per cent for this "plus" business.

American Express has offices world wide and highly respected. Company also has about 70,000 institutions selling their traveller's checks. It is expected that most banks will handle the credit card business.

It would seem likely that it will be difficult for less strategically located firms to compete. Company also has taken an interest in a world wide rent a car business with Hertz Corp., thru American Express Hertz International, Ltd.

Cook Co. Forest Preserve Purchases Acreage in Palos

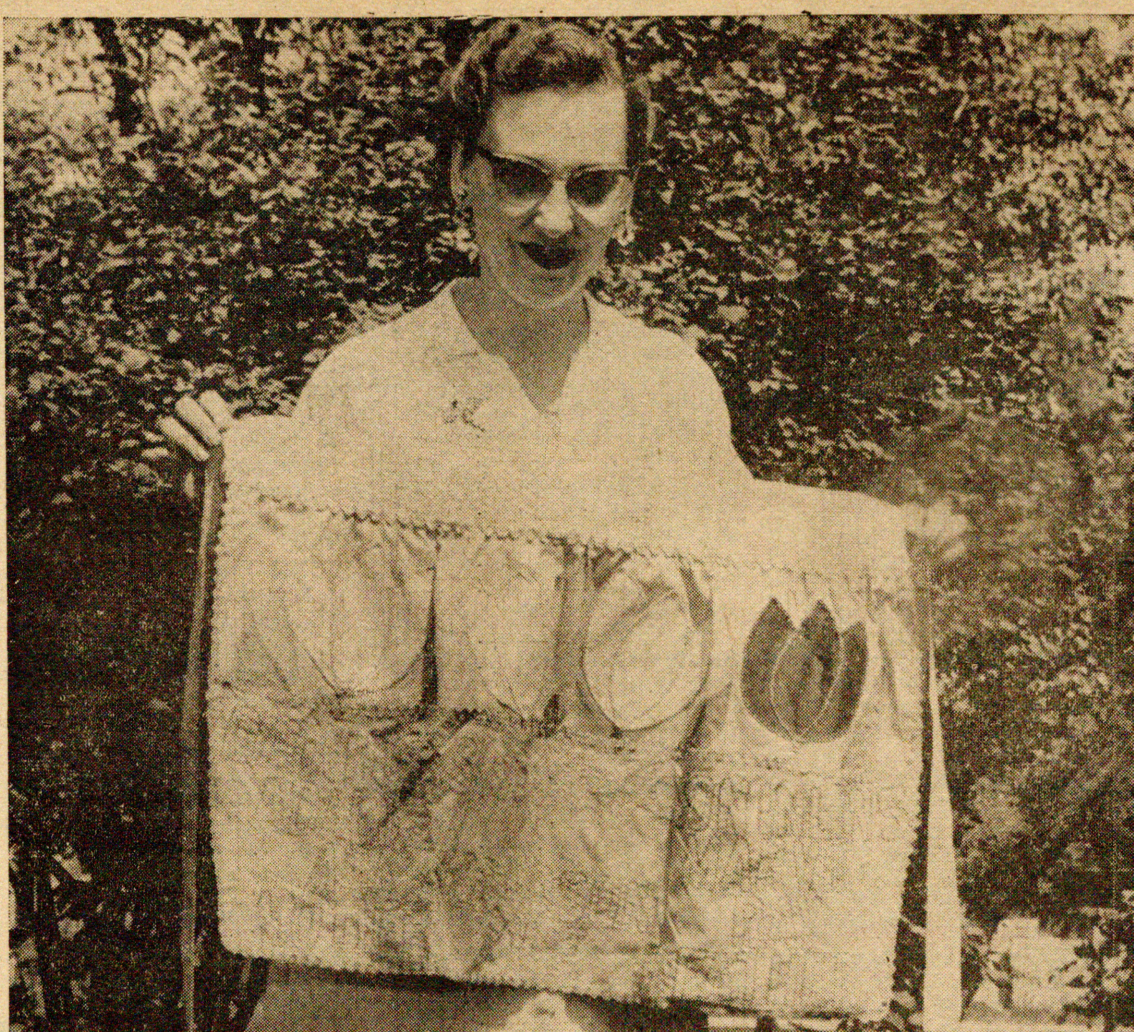

(CNS) --Ernest Jordan's offer to sell 10 acres of farmland at 127th and Will-Cook road, Palos township, for $18,250 has been accepted by the Forest Preserve District.

County commissioners, sitting as the forest preserve board, Tuesday agreed to pay Jordan his price for the land. Rudolph L. Janega, the district's real estate agent, said the price submitted is "fair and reasonable" and recommended acceptance. The land is improved with a residence and two farm buildings, Janega said.

Under terms of the agreement, Jordan may occupy the premises, rent free, until September 1, 1959.

Oh, for the good old days when Lebanon was a sausage, Morocco was a leather and the summit was the top of a mountain.

—CHANGING TIMES

MRS. ED. OSMUS—New Lenox has received acclaim for her unusual hobby, that of creating aprons for important women. The apron shown here, being held by Adeline Smith, daughter of Mrs. Margaret M. Semmler for whom the apron was made, tells the family history briefly. Across the belt is Mrs. Semmler's name. The material is blue with four pockets representing flower pots holding tulips—lavender, yellow, pink and red. The wording on the left pocket is: Daughters, Adeline, Ada and Mother. The next two pockets are worded, Grandma and Grandson Dale and the one on the right lists, son-in-laws, Marvin, Ray, Father. All is done in two colors. The handwork is perfectly done of threads with the tulips and leaves being appliqued with never an uneven line or thread.

Mrs. Osmus made an apron for Mrs. Eisenhower and many other women serving in important places. Mrs. Semmler is very proud of this apron and humbly considers it one of the highest compliments she has ever been paid. (Marvin Smith photo)

assistant farm adviser

According to figures calculated at the University of Illinois 4H office, there are more than 68 thousand 4H club members in the state this year. This number tops the previous enrollment record by more than 3,000. There are more than 15 hundred 4H club members in Cook county. The introduction of new projects such as photography, entomology, automotive maintenance, have helped to bring about this increase in enrollment.

4H club work in Park Forest took part in the 10th anniversary celebration of that community. The 4-Hers prepared exhibits of their work which were displayed in the Holiday theatre. An entertaining program was presented by the 4H members as one of the evening programs.

Mrs. Robert Collen, 4H Advisor in Park Forest, has done an excellent job in establishing 4H Club work in the community. Mr. T. W. Thompson, Chairman of the Park Forest Advisory Council, and the council members are also to be complimented for their work in promoting the 4-H program.

I attended a luncheon at the Bloom high school teachers' workshop. There were over 200 people in attendance, many of them representatives of business and industry. This seems to be an excellent way to maintain good relationship and understanding in the community. Dr. Harold Metcalf, Superintendent of Bloom High School, arranged a very interesting and informative program. He pointed out that residents of Bloom township now enjoy educational opportunities from kindergarten through two years of college. This is a fine accomplishment and a credit to Dr. Metcalf and the Bloom Board of Education.

I was also impressed with the speaker whose observation was that in America we are born free, we are not born wise. The educational system should be dedicated to making free men wise.

Farmers in this area will want to take advantage of the field day at Elwood and Joliet Experiment fields. The program will be held Tuesday, Sept. 16 at 10:00 a.m. at the Joliet field located at Route 30, northwest of Joliet. The program will start at 1:00 p.m. at the Elwood field. Why not plan to take advantage of experimental work in crops, soil conservation and soil treatment carried on practically in your back yard?

Observations of successful hog enterprises indicate that good management becomes increasingly important as the size of enterprise increases. This would indicate that it pays to study your farm records to learn what your management skills are before jumping into an expanded hog business.

The average size of dairy herds in the major milkshed areas has increased rapidly in recent years. This trend has been necessary to produce a volume of business large enough to give respectable net earnings. Many dairy herds outside the major milkshed areas have felt the increased competition for more efficient and larger dairy herds. Consequently they are finding alternative uses for their land, their money, and their time.

An analysis of farm records on farms rented under livestock share leases in 1957 has proved the old observation that "what is profitable for the tenant is also profitable for the landlord." When the records were sorted according to landlord's rate earned on the investment, the farms with high returns to the landlord also had high returns to the tenant.

How many of these electric helpers have you added since 1947?...asks LITTLE BILL

a b c d e f g h i

You're an average family if—in the postwar years you've added six new electrical appliances. Shown here are a few typical examples.

This is why you're using far more electricity nowadays than you did just a few years ago. And why life is a lot easier. But of all the things you buy today, electricity has gone up less than almost anything else.

So, while your bill may be a little higher, electricity is actually doing nearly twice as much work for the money now as it did years ago.

See how little it costs to run each of these electric helpers.

a—Automatic washer—2 loads for 1¢. Saves hours of work each week.

b—Electric dryer—6¢ a load is all you pay to dry the clean electric way.

c—Hi-Fi—about 2 hours for 1¢—4 long-playing records for a penny's worth of electricity.

d—TV set—2 hours for 1½¢—The world's finest entertainment for pennies a day.

e—Sewing machine—runs 4 hours for 1¢. Easy way to stretch your clothes budget.

f—Refrigerator—3¢ a day. New under-counter model is handy for soft drinks, ice, or snacks.

Other appliances include:

(g) Steam iron—Glides along easily on its own cushion of steam for less than 2¢ an hour.
(h) 150-watt lamp—Good reading light costs but a penny for over 2 hours.
(i) Electric clock—the exact time, just 1¢ a week.

"Electricity costs less today, you know than it did 25 years ago!"

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE No. 69

AN ORDINANCE PROVID-ING FOR THE REGULATION AND CONTROL OF THE CON-STRUCTION OF SEPTIC SYS-TEMS AND FOR THE ABATE-MENT OF THE POLLUTION OF STREAMS AND OTHER NATURAL WATER COURSES FOR THE VILLAGE OF NEW LENEX, COUNTY OF WILL AND STATE OF ILLINOIS.

WHEREAS, the Village of New Lenox is without a sewage disposal system or other public means of control over sewage and other wastes; and,

WHEREAS, danger to public health and welfare from the ineffectual control and disposition of sewage and other wastes increases in direct proportion to the increase in population density; and,

WHEREAS, home construction and the number of persons residing within the limited confines of the Village of New Lenox, Will County, Illinois and its immediate environs, have risen sharply, and promise to continue to rise rapidly.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT
ORDAINED by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of New Lenox, Will County, Illinois:

Section 1: That no person or persons shall construct or install any septic system or other means for the disposal of sanitary wastes that does not conform to the minimum requirements prescribed from time to time by the Department of Health in and for the County of Will and State of Illinois.

Section 2: That no Building Permit for the construction or installation of a septic system or other method of disposing of sanitary wastes shall be issued unless the application thereof shall be accompanied by detailed plans and specifications for any such sewage disposal installation, and the Village Clerk shall issue a Building Permit therefor, only if the construction proposed in such application complies with Section 1 above.

Section 3: The Commissioner of Health for the Village of New Lenox, Will County, Illinois is hereby empowered and directed to supervise the construction and installation of all such improvements for the disposal of sanitary wastes to assure such improvements comply with the provisions of this Ordinance, and no person or persons shall cover any such disposal system, including septic tanks and drainage fields or any connection thereto or therefrom, without first obtaining the written approval of said Commissioner of Health.

Section 4: No owner or occupant of premises situated within the Village of New Lenox, Will County, Illinois shall dispose of sewage or other sanitary wastes in such a manner as to cause or contribute to the pollution of creeks, streams or the natural flow of surface water; the pollution of any creek, stream or natural flow of surface water is hereby declared to be a nuisance.

Section 5: The Commissioner of Health for the Village of New Lenox, Will County, Illinois is hereby empowered and directed, within a reasonable time after service of written notice upon the owner or occupant of his intention to so do, to enter into and upon any premises within the corporate limits of the Village of New Lenox, Will County, Illinois to investigate and ascertain whether the method of disposal of sewage or sanitary wastes causes or contributes to the pollution of any creek, stream or natural flow of surface water.

Section 6: Any person or persons who is convicted of violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than Ten ($10.00) Dollars, nor more than One Hundred ($100.- 00) Dollars; PROVIDED HOW-EVER, that each day such violation shall exist shall be deemed a separate offense under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 7: The term person or persons as hereinabove set forth shall mean any individual, person, firm, co-partnership, club, association or corporation.

Section 8: The invalidity of any section hereof shall not effect the validity of any other portion of this Ordinance.

Section 9: This Ordinance shall become effective after its passage, approval and publication, in accordance with the statutes in such case made and provided.

Passed this 3rd day of September, A. D. 1958.

ORDINANCE No. 417

AN ORDINANCE TO PRO-MOTING THE PUBLIC WEL-FARE OF THE VILLAGE OF MOKENA THROUGH THE
LICENSING AND REGULAT-ION OF AUTOMATIC AMU-SEMENT MACHINES.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF MOKENA,
ILLINOIS, as follows:

1. The term "automatic amusement machine" means any mechanical amusement machine or device, the operation of which is governed or controlled by the deposit of a coin or token including, without being limited thereto, a such coin controlled instrument or device capable of producing or reproducing any vocal or instrumental music or sounds.

2. An annual license tax of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) is imposed on each automatic amusement machine used within the Village of Mokena for gain or profit from operation.

3. Upon payment of the annual tax, the Village Clerk shall issue a license in the name of the owner as licensee, authorizing the use of the automatic amusement machine for the license period ending on the thirty-first day of December following the date of issuance.

4. It shall be unlawful for any person to deliver or install an automatic amusement machine within the Village for use by any other person for gain or profit from operation unless the license tax thereon has been paid for the current year.

It shall be unlawful for any person to install, keep, maintain or use, or permit the installation, keeping, maintenance or use upon his premises of any automatic amusement machine upon which such license tax has not been paid and for which a license has not been issued for the current year.

5. The Village Clerk shall deliver with each license, a sticker license emblem which shall bear the words "automatic amusement machine" and "Mokena" and numerals designating the year for which such license is issued and a number identical with the number of such license. The Village Clerk shall change annually the predominant color or design of such license emblem.

It shall be the duty of the licensee to affix the sticker license emblem in a conspicuous place on the licensed automatic amusement machine, and it shall be unlawful for any person to mutilate or remove said emblem from the automatic amusement machine during the year for which it was licensed.

6. The fee for any license not issued for a full calendar year, shall be pro-rated as of the date of issue until the following thirty-first day of December.

7. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than $50.00 nor more than $200.00 for each offense and each day such violation shall continue shall be regarded as a separate offense.

Passed this 2nd day of Sept., 1958 by the Board of Trustees of the Village of Mokena, Illinois.

Forest Preserve Dist. Files Suit To Acquire Land

(CNS) —A condemnation suit to acquire 20 acres in Orland township has been filed by the Forest Preserve District of Cook county.

The vacant land is situated west of Harlem avenue and north of 151st street. It abuts the Tinley Creek Woods Preserve to the north.

The First National Bank of Blue Island, as trustee of the three parcels of land, is named defendant in the circuit court suit.

Attorney Anton S. Mokula, who drafted the bill, says the land will be used as a forest preserve.

County Refuses To Rezone Area For Gravel Pit

(CNS) Cook county is getting tough with stone quarry and gravel pit operators.

County officials are now on record against allowing such operations to be established anymore at new locations unless the owners give assurances that the property, when "worked out," won't be abandoned as a waste land.

The first to feel the blow of this "big stick" in a rezoning case is the Dolese and Shepard company of Hodgkins. The County Board Tuesday turned down the firm's rezoning petition to establish a stone quarry and gravel pit on 67 acres of farm land in Hanover township.

One of the reasons given for denial was that the firm failed to offer a plan for rehabilitating the property when nothing is left to mine and operations cease.

In effect, the ruling holds that no one has the right to carve out a big hole in the ground and later walk away, leaving a big cavity in the countryside.

This zoning policy and the reasons for it are spelled out in the county zoning board's recommendation against rezoning in this case, a report the county commissioners adopted.

At the last meeting of the Orland Park village board a request for a zoning hearing on a parcel of land located at 159th and 104th ave., to be effective if and when the property in question should be annexed to the village, was denied.

The request for rezoning to light industry was made to enable George J. Beemsterboor, Inc., to continue removing peat and humus from the location if it should be annexed. In refusing the request, Orland trustees reasoned all that could be annexed was a large hole in the ground.

Play it Safe! Safety Experts Advise Farmers

In this busy farm work season, it's smart to play safe by having all safety shields in place on power-take-offs and other moving farm machinery parts.

The stakes are too high to gamble against having an accident by working around machinery without guards, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. If you lose, it's too late to be sorry.

Get standard power-take-off hitches and shields from your machinery dealer. But even the best shield will not protect you if you don't put it on.

Some manufacturers are putting on non-removable power take-off shields to help protect operators against negligence. You can open these shields for service and inspection.

Just remember that accidents don't respect either age or experience.

It is most important that all drivers know their traffic signs, says the Motor Club. Good drivers should know what a traffic sign says even before they are close enough to read the lettering. You should be able to recognize the sign's meaning by its standard shape. For instance, a stop sign is octagon shaped; a yield right of way sign is triangular; a hill warning is diamond shaped; and a railroad crossing warning is round.

The 500 most commonly used English words have 14,070 dictionary meanings.

Accidents of all types take the lives of nearly five males for every female.

Four Farm Tours Being Conducted In Will County

A. A. Wicklein, Will County Farm adviser, announces four outstanding and important tours to be conducted soon.

The first will be Tuesday, Sept. 16 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. when the Joliet Experiment field between Joliet and Plainfield on route 30, will be visited. Principal points of interest will be long term soil treatments and crop rotations and their result on crop yields. Also the effect of nitrogen on corn and comparison of phosphate carriers.

The second, starting at 1 p.m. on the same day, Sept. 16, will be made at the Elwood field, 10 miles south of Joliet on route 66A. Here comparison will be made between liquid and dry fertilizer, different rates of nitrogen on corn, effect of sludge, different kinds of phosphate, soybean varieties, Hybrid and Dwarf corn, irrigation and erosion and weed killer.

Third tour will be Sept. 19 starting at 1:15 p.m. on the Robert Burch farm in section 20 Homer township. This will be a farm management and outlook meeting. This is a cattle feeder and hog farm which has done an outstanding job of soil and water management.

The fourth tour will be held Oct. 2 and 3 and will be a cattle feeder's visit. The group will start Oct. 2 and will visit any cattle feeder who has cattle close to market weight. This project, was so well received this spring that it was urged to be continued. A commission man from Chicago will accompany the group on these farm visits. Those who would like to have their cattle viewed on these two days should contact Farm Adviser Wicklein.

Veteran's Pensions

The American Legion at its national convention in Chicago last week voted down a resolution which would have urged Congress to enact legislation which would give World War I veterans a pension of $100 a month after they have become 60 years of age. Proponents of the resolution, which was put before the convention by the Illinois and Indiana state Legion groups, urged passage of a program which would have called for payment of the pension regardless of the financial standing of the recipient or whether he had any other annuities or pension payments.

Opponents of the proposed pension plan labeled it a treasury raid and declared for the Legion to hold the line it has been holding for the past 40 years—no pensions or allowances for ex-service people except those who have what is called a service connected disability.

This is very noble of the American Legion and no doubt will win it some editorial pats on the back and the heartfelt thanks of those bureaucrats who hate any spending which might divert funds from their special projects.

It was pointed out at the Legion convention by backers of the pension plan that it would not cost anymore in taxes, that it could be paid for by using a portion of the billions now poured out in so-called foreign aid.

The Legionnaires, however, voted overwhelmingly to hold the line for payments to those persons with service connected disabilities. Some people have the mistaken idea that a service connected disability means that the person so afflicted suffered hurt in battle or stricken with some disabling ailment as a result of his service or as prisoner of war. Such things are, of course, service connected disabilities, so is a broken leg or arm resulting from tripping over a tent rope or missing the next to last step while descending a ship's ladder. One may argue that had not the persons who tripped or fell been in the service, they could have suffered the same falls at home only to be told that if they weren't so clumsy and looked where they were going they wouldn't have fallen.

We think the government should take care of the disabled service people but there are individuals, groups, organizations and other government agencies who begrudge the money spent on veterans. We think the Legion's stand on the pension plan proposed last week plays into the hands of such forces.

There have been numerous instances where allowances for veterans have been cut back drastically thru the argument that such payments constitute a raid on the treasury. The Legion's willingness to go along with this line of propaganda may make it easier for such groups to reduce appropriations for veteran benefits in general, including pensions and payments to the sick and disabled. The Legion would vigorously oppose a move to sell war material to an enemy of our country but it is certainly giving aid and comfort to the foes of veterans.

divers could send up written reports of their findings instead of waiting until resurfacing.

My need is really very simple—a hand instrument that will write on paper...paper cut to approximately letter head size from remnants of newsprint and known in the trade as "copy paper". That's all I ask but a fat lot of good it does to ask. My new pen, with its new magical writing fluid may write on a burlap sack...I don't know. I haven't tried it but I have tried it on paper and it doesn't work.

Oh, well. Who am I to be different? Please, someone, pass me the butter....

On speculating who will be appointed by Mayor Elmer H. Knudsen of Tinley Park to replace Tom Hatfield on the village board, our prediction is Peter Miller of 17237 Oketa ave.

Hatfield, an unsuccessful candidate for trustee at the last election, was appointed to replace the winning candidate, Robert Oliver, who moved to Fort Wayne shortly after taking office.

Our prediction is made only on the basis of observation. Miller was actively responsible for the recent annexation of the Southlands area to the village.

Points to Inflation as One of Biggest Thieves in Nation Today

By MAURICE W. SCOTT
(Exec. Sec. Taxpayers Federation of Illinois)

Describing "inflation" as a pickpocket who stalks our streets picking the pockets of all citizens and taking most from the least able to spare, T. V. Houser, vice chairman of the committee for economic development, aptly pictured this economic outlaw, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois agreed today. Houser was formerly chairman of the board, Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Inflation commits many crimes upon the people. It robs the needy by decreasing the purchasing power of money. The things that a pension or small salary will buy shrink as the inflation movement grows. Savings upon which so many of our people rely for their support in old age are diminished in value. As inflation flourishes, it can easily offset any interest which the ordinary savings account or insurance policy can pay.

One way to help defeat this peril is to curb rigorously all non-essential federal spending, particularly that made possible by deficit financing. The recent adjournment of Congress, with its Federal budget for the fiscal 1959 calling for a deficit of at least $10 billion, illustrates the necessity of driving this point home. Such a deficit, and the borrowing it necessitates, invites more of the inflation that has plagued the nation and its wage earners for the past dozen years. Statistics developed by Tax Foundation, Inc. are the proof:

The average U. S. production worker's gross weekly earnings increased from about $50 in 1947 to just over $52 last year, but inflation constantly dogged his steps.

For example: in 1947, his pay increased by $6.15 over the preceding year, but with inflated costs, prices, taxes, etc., he actually lost 18c.

In 1957, the average gross weekly earnings of production workers went up by $2.40 over the 1956 figure—but inflation's toll of this increase was $2.74. So his increase, again, turned out to be no increase at all, but rather a 34c loss.

Since total personal consumption spending in the U. S. averages about $5,000 a year per family, a 1 percent rise in consumer prices can mean a loss of about $50 for a family whose income remains unchanged within a year's time.

However, all can help get rid of this pickpocket with no sacrifice. The only thing we need to give up is the illusion that we can get more out of the economy than we put into it.

It's not a cheaper car that people want. It's an expensive car that costs less.

On Second Thot

By GLENN F. LOGAN
It has been said that people in the news trade are inclined to harbor a mite of cynicism in their make up that comes to light now and then in their writing or speech.

There may be a grain of truth in this report but that is not surprising when one stops to consider how frequently the news gatherer encounters the species phonus bolonus while going about his chores.

The really surprising thing is how many working newspeople retain a sound faith in their fellowmen, a deep respect for the moral virtues and a strong belief in justice.

It seems to me that as trying as people are at times, the basic cause of losing faith lies in gadgets and the prose flights of skilled copy writers who describe their wonders.

Probably the automobile clock and the ballpoint pen have done more to disillusion people than anything else. And coming fast on the outside for a close finish is a car heater.

There are the fanciful words describing tobacco blends that will delight the palate of the discriminating pipe smoker that are sheer poetry. They are more than that—they are magic. And even the mixture bites and becomes as the taste of a bus driver's glove in our mouths we discriminating pipe smokers are prime suckers and always come back for more, our head groggy but unbowed. But that is another story.

It is the same with most gadgets. There is a kitchen drawer at home that is filled with so-called household aids that I have bought—patented peelers, shredders slicers and the like. My wife, however, takes it philosophically and outside of an occasional—"Oh, no! Not again!"—waits until it threatens to overflow and then heaves the lot into what was formerly an ash can.

I am also a particular prey of ballpoint venders. I point out to myself that pencils have served me well for many years in the taking of notes, so why not stick with them. That leads to an argument. Another part of myself reminds me that a ballpoint is faster than a pencil, the point doesn't break or dull, and—here is the clincher—the notes written with the ballpoint do not smudge as much as those written with pencil and are therefore easier to decipher, altho this assertion, I must admit, is open to debate.

One does write faster with a ballpoint pen than with a pencil—if the bloomin' thing works. My trouble is that when I need it most the pen skips and won't make a line.

Recently I read an ad extolling the virtues of a new filler for a certain ballpoint pen. For a capital outlay of almost $3 one could purchase a ballpoint pen that was guaranteed to write on practically anything. The writing fluid is said to contain some magical chemical that will enable the pen owner to write on buttered paper, glass, china, glossy photos, ice or under water.

That is all very fine for anyone with a penchant for buttered paper, altho it must be messy stuff to carry around. And celebrities whose autographs are in demand, a for film stars and other pen that will write on a shaving mug or highball glass might be very useful...Ice cubes with the names of guests inscribed on the sides would make conversation pieces and

16 New Teachers Are On Faculty At Carl Sandburg High School

Sixteen new faces appear on the Carl Sandburg high school faculty this fall, ten of them added to the staff due to increased enrollments and an effort to bring down the average class size.

Superintendent W. O. Fisher is hoping that by reducing the class size to about 25, the quality of classroom instruction can improve thereby giving each student at Sandburg more individual attention.

Enrollment on the opening day of school, Tuesday, Sept. 2 showed there were 1,185 registered, an increase of 166 over last year's initial enrollment.

Both the English and social science departments have three new members, with home economics, mathematics, and science departments each with two new members. Girl's physical education, industrial arts foreign language and business education each claim one new staff member.

Shirley Lewis, who will sponsor the Sandburg Star in addition to teaching journalism and English, comes to Sandburg from Barrington. She is originally from Pekin and is a graduate of the University of Illinois.

Helen Lee is a graduate of Eastern Illinois university with two year's experience at Paris. She will be a librarian as a member of the English department. William Jacoby also joins the English department with eight years teaching experience, holding his B. A. Degree from Loras college and his master's degree from DePaul.

In the social sciences is John E. Wilson, who will also coach cross country and frosh-soph basketball. He has three years experience and is a graduate of Eastern Illinois University. He has spent four years in the air force, and is the father of two children.

Zane Miller came to Sandburg from a year at Lima, Ohio holding a bachelor's degree and master's from Miami of Ohio. His wife's name is Janet. Jacob Voelker has two year's experience at Mendel high school of Chicago and will teach German in addition to world history. His home town is Hammond, Ind., and he holds a degree from St. Joseph's college.

The home economics department welcomes Mrs. William Cote and Mrs. Carol Cady. Mrs. Cote was graduated from Illinois State Normal university and has two year's teaching experience. Mrs. Cady is a North Central college graduate with three year's teaching experience.

In the science department for the first year are John Anderson and James R. Keith. Anderson will coach wrestling in addition to his teaching duties coming with a degree from Cornell college, Mt. Vernon, Iowa. Keith was graduated from Southern Illinois university, is married and the father of a daughter. He has spent four years in the air force.

Shirley Birdsall is a native of LaGrange, coming to Sandburg's mathematics department with a degree from North Central college. Randall Johnson, a Northern Illinois university graduate is the other new mathematics instructor.

Teaching Latin for the first year at Sandburg is Margaret Dorigan, a graduate of Mundelein college and a native of Chicago. Marion E. Randcliffe is also a Chicago product, holding a degree from DePaul university. She is teaching girl's physical education.

Herbert Reber is a graduate of Colorado State college of

Girl Scouts Will Resume Troop Work

With the close of summer, some 11,000 girls in the South Cook County Girl Scout Council are looking forward to resuming their troop activities. Not all of the 597 troops in the south suburban area were inactive during the hot months. Some continued to meet and many of the girls went camping. So far this year over 6,000 girls in the Council have taken advantage of camping facilities at day, troop and established camps.

Now all the girls are eagerly anticipating another year of hikes and cook outs, arts and crafts, learning about, sharing with, and serving others, all in an atmosphere of fun and friendship. The Girl Scout organization trains girls for citizenship, future leadership and service to our community, and the girls have fun while learning. One of the Girl Scouts' most recent accomplishments combined neighborliness with service to others and International friendship. The girls made and filled over 800 health, craft and personnel kits for migrant children whose families worked here this summer.

The Girl Scout program encompasses a broad spectrum of activities in eleven fields: music and dancing, literature and dramatics, arts and crafts, community life, international friendship, nature, the out of doors, sports and games, agriculture, health and safety, and homemaking. It reaches the girls thru their troops on three age levels, Brownie, Intermediate and Senior.

The girls are not the only ones heading back to school this fall. Adult Girl Scouts throughout the Council are making plans now to attend the Great Lakes Regional Conference Oct. 28, 29, 30 in Detroit, Mich. The three days of inspiration and learning will offer the opportunity to registered adults in the region to exchange ideas and information on such topics as leadership techniques, imaginative use of program, making the most of natural resources etc. The Council is chartering buses and reservations may be made through the Harvey office.

The training committee of the Girl Scout Council held an orientation meeting for all new adult volunteers at the Council office in Harvey on Sept. 9.

Dairy cows can be successfully dried up by using a method thoroughly tested by the University of Illinois Dairy Science Department. First, wash the udder thoroughly with a chlorine disinfectant or with soap and water. Then milk the udder completely dry. After milking, disinfect the end of each teat with a tincture of iodine solution, 10 percent strength. After the iodine dries, place collodion over the end of the teat to seal the opening.

Know When and How to Pass Cars

The average driver has to pass slow-moving cars and trucks several times during the course of a day's driving. But even seasoned drivers may not know all they should about careful passing.

The Motor Club points out that careful passing is a tough job, not so simple as many motorists seem to think.

First, it's important to know when not to pass. You should not pass on hills or curves, at railroad crossings, or at road intersections. And you should not pass if the car ahead is moving along at the legal speed limit.

When you are going to pass, it is essential that you know how to judge the distance and the speed you'll need to get safely around the car ahead. For instance, to pass on a two-lane road, you should do 45 miles per hour, you should do 60 mph. Also, you'll need about one-quarter of a mile to make the passing maneuver.

Passing on a two-lane road involves different approaches than passing on expressways. Here are some tips from the Motor Club for safe passing on two-lane highways.

1. Never follow the car you are going to pass too closely. This will block your view of the highway and will not give you enough stopping room if the car ahead brakes suddenly. Follow the car ahead by one car length for every 10 miles of speed.

2. Look ahead for cars coming from the opposite direction or anything on the road that might make the driver you're overtaking swerve into the passing lane. Check your rear-view mirror to make sure a car isn't passing you.

3. If a car is following you, switch on your turn signals to show you are going to change lanes. Blow your horn or at night flick your lights to let the driver ahead know you're passing him. Give your signals a chance to be observed before you start passing.

4. Turn smoothly into the other lane, accelerating rapidly to a speed 10 to 15 miles faster than that of the car you're passing.

5. Don't move back into the right lane until you're well beyond the car you've overtaken. Move back smoothly and guard against a tendency to slow down after passing.

In three lane expressway traffic, passing differs in that the passing driver does not return to the outside lane used by slow-moving vehicles. If you are driving at medium-high speeds, stay in the middle lane. Move to the inner lane if you are driving at the top legal speed. Don't switch from lane to lane.

Whether on an expressway or a two-lane highway, safe passing requires patience, courtesy, and careful observation of these safety tips.

White Snakeroot Dangerous to All Livestock

Livestock are most likely to be affected by white snakeroot poisoning in late summer and fall, according to Dr. R. P. Link, University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine.

Poor pasture is usually the reason animals eat white snakeroot. When they have good pasture, they rarely eat the plant. Poisoning usually results from eating the weed every day for several days, although some poisonings occur after only one feeding.

All animals are susceptible to the poison found in white snakeroot. Milk of lactating animals that eat the plant contains the poisonous agent. This has given rise to the term "milk sickness" for the poisoning that results when people drink milk from a cow that has eaten the weed. Nursing animals may also be poisoned in this way. This may occur without the cow's showing signs of poisoning. Poisoned animals become listless and inactive, although the first signs of the poisoning may be loss of weight and the animal may tremble after exercise. Trembling is especially noticed in the muzzle and legs. As poisoning progresses, the animals lose appetite completely and become weaker until they are not able to stand. Cattle usually grind their teeth, have a pungent odor and suffer fast, hard breathing.
